TWC § 7.251 Report Attached:	Yes

Report of No Violation Pursuant to Affirmative Defense Under Tex. Water Code § 7.251 – Hurricane Beryl

This Report of No Violation Pursuant to Affirmative Defense Under Tex. Water Code (“TWC”) § 7.251 (“Report”) arises out of a state of disaster resulting from Hurricane Beryl, which made landfall near Matagorda, Texas around 4:00 a.m. on July 8, 2024 and moved north northeast, maintaining hurricane force winds as it moved through the City of Houston (“Houston”) by 10:00 a.m. CDT on the morning of July 8. In addition to hurricane force winds, Hurricane Beryl caused heavy rains and flooding throughout Houston, with some areas reporting more than 10 inches of rain in 8 hours. Approximately 3 million people in the Houston area were without power, with much of the area suffering from multiple-day power outages. In connection with Hurricane Beryl, the Acting Governor of the State of Texas declared a state of disaster which included Harris County¹, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit A. The Federal Emergency Management Agency also declared a disaster for Texas Hurricane Beryl (DR-4798-TX), which also included Harris County.

TWC § 7.251 provides that when “an event that would otherwise be a violation of a statute ... was caused solely by an act of God, ... or other catastrophe, the event is not a violation of that statute, rule, order, or permit.” The SSOs listed in Exhibit B were caused by the catastrophic wind which damaged electrical infrastructure, excessive rainfall and flooding which overwhelmed the City’s sanitary sewer system, and power outages that prevented lift stations and treatment plants from being able to convey untreated wastewater through the WCTS, causing the untreated wastewater to back up and ultimately overflow. In addition, winds from Hurricane Beryl removed the roof and destroyed the electrical building at the City’s Willowbrook WWTP, resulting in the loss of SCADA and other electrical components necessary to operate the facility. Accordingly, the City of Houston asserts this affirmative defense pursuant to TWC § 7.251, as referenced in Paragraph 117 of the Consent Decree.

Secretary of State

Dear Deputy Secretary Nelson:

Pursuant to his powers as Acting Governor of the State of Texas, Dan Patrick has issued the following:

A proclamation amending a previous proclamation that declared a state of disaster in a certain number of counties based on the threat posed by Hurricane Beryl on July 5, 2024, and that continues, by adding additional counties to the disaster area.

The original proclamation is attached to this letter of transmittal.

Respectfully submitted,

Gregory S. Davidson
